

Norcote signs on as primary sponsor of Conquest Racing Car #36.
Scheckter returns to Conquest Racing at Kentucky Speedway.

"Having an association with Conquest Racing and Tomas Scheckter at the Kentucky IndyCar race is a perfect fit for the Norcote brand." said John Fisbeck, Norcote's CEO. "Just like IndyCar racing, Norcote uses cutting edge technology and is able to quickly adapt to changes in order to provide our customers with unsurpassed services and products. And, just like IndyCar, we are headquartered in the Midwest but we are global leaders in our industry."

Fans will get to see the Norcote International colors on the #36 Honda/Dallara driven by Tomas Scheckter starting on Friday when teams take to the 1.5 mile tri-oval at the Kentucky Speedway.

"I'm looking forward to driving the Norcote International car at Kentucky Speedway for Conquest Racing." said Scheckter. "It will be great to drive for them again and to continue what we started last week. We had a good first weekend together at Chicagoland despite the early retirement from the race and I really enjoyed working with everyone on the team."
